ST. PETERSBURG, 20th January. The Government has received the draft of a contract submitted by the ex Governor of East very satisfactory results of the famed Syrap tern Sibaria, by which it is proposed to concede to an American company the monopoly for twenty-five years of the for trade and the hunting of for animals on the Russian Pacific ceast. BUMOURED MARRIAGE OF A VETERAN STATESMAN.

NEW YORK, 18th January. The Tribune's London special says :- The World announces the approaching marriage of Viscount Sherbrooks (Robert Lows), aged asventy-throe years, and a widower without an heir. to Miss Sueyot, his amanuensis.

ENGLAND, FRANCE, AND CHINA. NEW YORK, 18th January. A cable special from London of January 17th sags:-The Foreign Office has turned a very deaf ear to Chinese complaints of neutrality violations. The Marquis Tseng, the Chinese Am-bassador to England, has sent several notes to Earl Granville. Secretary of Foreign Affairs, complaining that England's neutrality is onesided. He charges that England promptly recognizes every act of the French and ignores the acts of the Chinese Government. To all these complaints Lord Granville has sent a polite but meaningless reply, in which he evades the subject-matter and confines himself to the platitudes that are always kept in stock and within easy reach of the clerks in the Foreign Office. In the meantime the Marquis Tseng is chuckling over the flamboyant despatches of General Briefe de l'Islo, the French commander in Ton-The latest dispatch from the French General is to the effect that he is about to pacify Tonquin, which, the Marquis remarks, is easier said than done. The Chinese Authorities have renewed their threat of preventing the exportation of food supplies from the mainland to the English island of Hongkong as a measure of retalistion for the alleged violation of the neutrality treaties by England.

Like a thief at night it steals in upon us unawares. Many persons have pains about the poor. There is feeling like a heavy load on the stomach; sometimes a faint all-gone sensation at the pit of the stomach which food does not months it is attended with a greenish coloured NEW YORK rest. After a time he becomes nervous, irritable, taste, and sometimes with a sweetish taste; this is frequently attended with palpitation of the heart; the vision becomes impaired with spots before the eyes; there is a feeling of great are in turn present. It is thought that nearly one-third of our population has this disease in some of its varied forms. It has been found that medical men have mistaken the nature of this disease. Some have treated it for a liver complaint, others for kidney disease, etc., etc., but none of the various kinds of treatment have been stiended with success, because the remedy for in Dyspepsia (for this is really what the disease is) all of these organs partake of this isease and require a remedy that will act upon all at the same time. Seigel's Curative Syrup acts like a charm in this class of complaints: giving almost immediate relief. The following letters from chemists of standing in the community where they live show in what estimation the article is held.

John Archer, Harthill, near Sheffield:-I can body complains of hard times. The theatrical confidently recommend it to all who may be suffering from liver or stomach complaints, having the testimony of my oustomers, who have derived great benefit from the Syrup and Pills. The sale is increasing wonderfully.

Geo. A. Webb, 141, York Street, Belfast :- I have sold a large quantity, and the parties have commont members of the Medical Profession to b testified to its being what you represent it.

J. S. Metcalfe, 55, Highgate, Kendal:—I capacity for Study, Nervous Debility, Liver Combave always great pleasure in recommending plaints, Loss of Energy, Sick Headache, Indigestion, the Curative Syrup, for I have, never known a Female Compliants, Impoverished Blood, Fremstare case in which it has not relieved or cured, and Decline, and all morbid conditions of the system I have sold many grosses. Robt. G. Gould, 27, High Street, Andover: DR. BRIGHT'S PHOSPHODENE is sold by all Chemists throughout the Globe. Rafuse useless -I have always taken a great interest in your substitutes.
